TEFLON

TEFLON finish enhances a great product. Not only does this help the washability of the garments by releasing daily marks and grime, it also rejects oily stains. TEFLON Stain release finish tends to "seal in" the fabric colour, keeping the original look of the garments brighter and sharper for longer. It will help you and your staff look better to your customers when they are out on the job.

NURSE UNIFORM

FABRIC & DESIGN

Nurse uniforms are primarily made from durable and comfortable materials like polyester, and cotton-polyester blends, which offer a balance of softness, breathability, and wrinkle resistance.

A/B. FEMALE NURSE UNIFORM

The long sleeve female nurse uniform has full-length, straight-cut sleeves with buttoned or elastic cuffs, often worn for modesty or infection control, especially by Muslim nurses with a tudung. The short sleeve version ends above the elbow and is common in wards and clinics, offering better comfort, movement, and hygiene in warmer settings.

JACKETS

CLUB WINNERS

Our Club Jacket and Club Vest range is hugely popular. A shower-proof polyester outer is coupled with a warm microfleece inner to provide extra comfort, and the look is smarter than polar fleece alone. These garments handle hard wear. The outer doesn't pill or fade, and the inner retains its loft, without bulk. All the jackets and vests offer easy care. So join the club.

CLOTHING CARE

STAINS

Take immediate action. When a clothing item gets stained from food or a spill, take immediate action and clean the stain straight away. Waiting allows the stain to settle into the cloth, and you might not be able to clean it later. This is especially true with greasy foods and coloured drinks.

WASHING

don't over wash clothes; delicate clothes shouldn't be washed like towels or bed linen – or with them.

DRYING

Only use the dryer when necessary. Clean the dryer's lint trap before every use; this will reduce drying time and remove lint from your clothes more effectively. Dry several loads in a row to take advantage of the heat remaining in the dryer. Don't over dry clothes; if they need ironing, it's best done when they're still slightly damp – but don't forget to air them before storage.

IRONING

It's much harder to get the creases out of a dry shirt. Use a mist spray if necessary.

- Remember to remove any collar stays, unbutton any buttons.
- Always iron the front of the shirt last.
- Airing the garment after ironing: Fasten the top button and hang on a plastic coathanger to air for at least 30 minutes before placing in a wardrobe or folding up to travel.

DRYCLEANING

- Wools, satins, silks and velvets are examples of fabrics that need this special care.
- Refer to your care instructions inside the garment if unsure.

CARE LABELS

Your garments contain labels that tell you how to care for them. Its important information so read it as this will help your uniforms last longer.
